

Terrorism & Our Changing World

This course, Terrorism & Our Changing World, has been developed to address the global need for Terrorism Awareness training. This terrorism awareness course is essential for anyone working in Industry worldwide.

"The time has come to stop focusing on how to define and analyze terrorism, and to act. The world cannot tolerate levels of extremism and violence that pervert religion and politics to kill the innocent, divide cultures and civilizations, and bloc progress towards peace and reform. Nations and peoples do not face a clash of civilizations, but rather a struggle for civilization." HRH Prince Saud al-Faisal, Foreign Minister of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Counter-Terrorism International Conference, Riyadh, February 5-8, 2005.
